

Personality Summary

Each personality reflects something of God's nature:

- Driver → Authority & Leadership
- Expressive → Joy & Invitation
- Supportive → Compassion & Mercy
- Analytical → Wisdom & Truth

A healthy ministry needs all four working together—not competing, but complementing.

Our Ministry Team needs all these unique aspects:

- Drivers push forward
- Expressives inspire people
- Supportives care for hearts
- Analyticals protect truth and structure

👉 Conflict happens when we expect others to be like us

👉 Unity happens when we understand why they are not

Notice that the people with whom we are least likely to get along, are the same people that best compliment us. We have to work a little harder to partner with them, and yet, to produce the best fruit, we NEED them.

Questions:

1. Was anyone surprised at someone else's category? (Like, you would have pegged them differently?) - (No specifics at this time)
 - a. IF YES > watch over the coming weeks and try to discern if perhaps you had misunderstood them before.
2. Was anyone surprised by their own category?
 - a. IF YES > In the coming weeks, look at the fruit in your daily life and see if this category really fits (Perhaps you have gained some insight or self-awareness?)
3. Does this info change your perception or perspective on any previous interactions or assumptions you may have had about a team member? (No Specifics Please)

1 Corinthians 12:31 So you should earnestly desire the most helpful gifts.

But now let me show you a way of life that is best of all.

1 Corinthians 13 (NLT)

Love Is the Greatest

13 If I could speak all the languages of earth and of angels, but didn't love others, I would only be a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. 2 If I had the gift of prophecy, and if I understood all of God's secret plans and possessed all knowledge, and if I had such faith that I could move mountains, but didn't love others, I would be nothing. 3 If I gave everything I have to the poor and even sacrificed my body, I could boast about it;^[a] but if I didn't love others, I would have gained nothing.

4 Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud 5 or rude. It does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged. 6 It does not rejoice about injustice but rejoices whenever the truth wins out. 7 Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance.

8 Prophecy and speaking in unknown languages^[b] and special knowledge will become useless. But love will last forever! 9 Now our knowledge is partial and incomplete, and even the gift of prophecy reveals only part of the whole picture! 10 But when the time of perfection comes, these partial things will become useless.

11 When I was a child, I spoke and thought and reasoned as a child. But when I grew up, I put away childish things. 12 Now we see things imperfectly, like puzzling reflections in a mirror, but then we will see everything with perfect clarity.^[c] All that I know now is partial and incomplete, but then I will know everything completely, just as God now knows me completely.

13 Three things will last forever—faith, hope, and love—and the greatest of these is love.
